Section 8:

This form should be used only to Cover certain agricultural products listed under Annex 1 of the consolidated version of the treaty establishing the European Community (1997 version) List referred to in Article 32, Treaty 1.

The European Commission recognises any type of support given from any public funds to a possible exporter as a State Aid and therefore subject to State Aid restrictions. Under the TAP scheme we would normally be able to exempt this exhibitor grant under the De Minimis exemption regulation, which allows a business to receive up to a cumulative €200,000 over any rolling three year period. However, we are not able to use this exemption for "Annex 1" products. TAP grants given for Annex 1 products must therefore fall within an overall ceiling of support that the European Commission have agreed to cover this area.

By signing this version of the TAP application form you are agreeing that your products are covered by Annex 1. Your local International Trade Adviser will discuss this with you where relevant.
