Damiano Lo Giudice – Director of Gieffe Racing Parts

Damiano was born in 1971. He joined Gieffe Racing Parts in 1991 as a junior sales officer.

In 1993 he became responsible for the major customer accounts namely DALLARA, FERRARI and the FIAT group, looking after projects like the ALFA 155 DTM, and FERRARI SP333 acting as a link between the British suppliers and the car manufacturers. During this period he developed a network of strong and durable relationships with a lot of key players of UK motorsport companies like AP RACING, GOODRIDGE, HEWLAND and most of them became a personal friendship.

In 1996, after an exceptional growth in Turnover for Gieffe, he was appointed Sales Manager. After more sustainable growth, in 1998 he became a partner of the company. After 18 years with the company, today he sits on and leads the Gieffe Racing Parts board of Directors
