Bid for F1 paddock passes and hospitality

You and a friend could be guests of an F1 team in the F1 paddock at any one of five European Grands Prix.

The Tom Pryce Memorial Trust is running an auction to help raise money to erect a memorial to the late Tom Pryce, Wales's greatest F1 driver.

From Monday 9 March the auction is for VIP passes to the German GP with Renault, but in the following weeks you can bid on the Hungarian, Belgian, European and Italian GPs with hospitality from different F1 teams.
